The artist and cards interpretationist Marcela Sulzmann has designed the deck and in Original size hand painted. The motifs on the cards are characterized by their simplicity and positive Charisma. The artist lives and works in Germany, and has been working for more than 15 Years intensively with the card interpretation. Giving the name and inspiration for these soothsayers cards was the famous French fortune teller Marie Anne Lenormand. She lived in the 18th century. In their large clientele can be found illustrious names: the future King Louis XVIII, Prince Metternich, Josephine de Beauharnais, Napoleon, among others

II

This deck consists of 36 cards and one additional card. The additional card No.37 but must not be mixed and interpret with. If you want interpret the No. 37 with all card, interpret you card no.37 with the following card and this House (place) where it is. the card No.12 (the birds) are two motifs painted for selection you should take one.

Mixing and laying: The cards are shuffled into the one they face down on the table and then pushes her in his hand. Take your time when the cards for the first time in the Have hand, look at all the pictures individually to in order to "connect" with the cards to. during You mix the cards you focus on everything you want to know. After mixing the cards in four rows of nine cards are laid out.

III. (A)

Interpretation of the cards: You are looking at the big sheet of the main character (you No.29, He No. 28) and starts from there to the interpretation of the cards. All cards are behind a character card (as seen) show the Past. Before a person card (as viewed) the future. The card has a People map shows the thoughts. The card below of personnel card all you like displaced. All the surrounding cards are directly related to the person or Topics card (work) and have the greatest impact. If, for example, something about love want to know, then you look for the card "the heart" and looks at the surrounding cards.

III. (B)

Subsequently, by the people or topics card (work, money) of diagonal and Vertical line drawn. These show the developments and possibilities. another Method of interpretation is the interpretation houses. Each card in the middle of a number, it shows in the correct order by 1 to 36, the corresponding house in, for example, card # 1 = House of the rider = House of good news, which comes up to me, the rider bring something ..) etc. The corners (card No. 1,9,28,36) in the large map image display additional information to the main topic. It is important filter out an essence - the most important of the entire cards image.

IV

The large card is designed for a period of approximately 9 months. For Quick questions can be three cards draw 2 -1 - 3 First card is inserted in the middle, this is the issue or the problem of. Second card is placed to the left, this indicates the cause of the problem. Third card is right designed this card shows the solution to the problem. There are different laying methods such as the Celtic Cross and others, only the most important information is briefly described. For Interpret cards you need patience and intuition that one must train and exercise ÜbungG V.

Important: cards show ONLY the tendencies of how something will develop and no fate that you must accept! Everyone can change his life at any time and new decisions. One should not be in front of the Tarot fear just a little Have respect, so that the energy flow well and you get the right answers. One should not let the card interpretation put pressure on, otherwise you lose the joy to it and you should curiosity mitbringenG The Golden Lenormand is much more positive and loving energy been painted. I hope the subconscious mind speaks through the pictures to you.

My mother Jarmila dedicated with love and gratitude. Marcela Sulzmann.
